5-1/2 x 8-1/2, score and fold at 4-1/4 – card base.
4 x 5-1/4 – to die cut card front
3-7/8 x 5-1/8 – the sponged & spritzed background
2 x 5 – stamp and die cut bears
2 x 3 – die cut the hearts.

Simon Says Hot Pink cardstock

DIRECTIONS:

1. I started with a piece of Neenah 110 lb solar white cardstock - 3-7/8 x 5-1/8. I used the Ranger blending tool to add Picked Raspberry Distress Oxide Ink to the entire panel.
2. Next, I used the spritzer to add some droplets of water onto the inked piece, and patted it a bit with a paper towel to lift the wet ink for the "splotchy look".
3. I used the Pretty Pink Posh - Stitched Pieces Die to cut out my card front and then stamped a sentiment with VersaFine Onyx Black Ink (doesn't stain my photopolymer stamps and provides a nice crisp stamped image)
4. I attached this to the inked card stock with Therm o Web Gina K Designs Adhesive Dots.

5. Next I used the VersaFine Onyx Black ink again to stamp the panda bear from the set 3 times onto a small piece of Neenah 110lb Solar White cardstock and then used the coordinating dies to cut the little fellows out.
6. I used the heart dies from the set with some Hot Pink cardstock from Simon Says Stamp to cut out some heart confetti
7. I tucked the bears into the little windows in my card front, using some Gina K foam tape to prop up their heads a little for a bit of a 3-d effect.
8. I used Gina K Connect glue to attach the hearts and the Pretty Pink Posh - Valentines Jewels to the card front.
