DIRECTIONS:
1. Add a two-color wash to the front of the art piece with the Arteza watercolor paint and let dry.
2. Spray the back of the stencil with Pixie Spray and lay it over the watercolor piece.
3. Use the Life Changing Brushes to add color through the stencil.
4. Wash the stencil and dry it well.
5. Attach your art piece to a hard board with Purple tape (I use the backing from paper pads cut an inch bigger than my work piece).
6. Spray the back of the stencil with Pixie Spray again and lay it down over the art piece, moving to the left about an inch so you can see the distress oxide image just a bit.
7. Secure the edges with post-it-note tape to protect the rest of the art piece.
8. Add the paper glaze with a palette knife evenly over the stencil, scooping up any extra and putting back in the jar.
9. WASH THE STENCIL and palette knife immediately.
10. Let the piece dry for at least 30 minutes (depends on where you live and the humidity).
11. Attach a strip of the black and white patterned paper to the left side of the art piece before attaching it to the card front.
12. Die cut the sentiment three times and use the white glue to layer them before attaching them to the card front and then the card base.
13. Cut out the second sentiment from the CZ Designs Sentiment Strips and attach with foam squares
14. Add a sprinkling of the sequins using the Studio Katia embellishment wand and tray

Happy Stamping
